

PREMARITAL COVENANT

Because we understand marriage to be a precious and sacred gift from God, it is our desire to approach our marriage in a healthy way that upholds biblical standards and is pleasing and honoring to God.

It is God's will that you be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality; that each of you should learn to control his own body in a way that is holy and honorable...For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. Therefore, he who rejects this instruction does not reject man but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit. (1 Thessalonians 4:3-8)

We believe it is God's will for our lives and our marriage to be set apart for pure and faithful living. As a result, we make a covenant to abstain from sexual intimacy until we have shared our marriage vows together. We also agree to have accountability about this with our marriage coaches and other safe individuals with whom we have a close discipling relationship.

We will also trust God and honor him by following his guidelines for sexual intimacy within our future marriage.

With God's power we will keep this covenant and believe we will experience the spiritual and relational rewards of obeying God through a committed and pure relationship.
