NATIONAL RECOVERY

MONTH – It's no secret that we in the Miami Valley are at the epicenter of what's being called the heroin epidemic. The reality is that we all battle hurts, habits and hang ups, so we invite you all back next week to wrestle with the question, "What owns you?" If you have a friend or family member struggling with addiction, invite them too. This may be their opportunity to get connected to a healthy recovery community.

IT'S UPGRADE WEEKEND!

Partnering with families to raise up a new generation of Jesus followers is one the greatest honors we have at Ginghamburg. THIS WEEKEND kids move up to their new classes with new teachers and leaders. Stop by the tent on the front lawn after worship to meet your child's leaders, pray for the upcoming school year and enjoy some sweet treats.
