TIPP CITY CAMPUS

LOVE THE 937 CAR CLINGS

We are in week two of our Lovethe937 series, and we sense this is more than a series... it's a movement of God. We want to spread the good word, so at all the exits today, you'll find car clings! We invite you to take one and put it on the inside of one of your car windows. For more details on the movement, visit lovethe937.org.

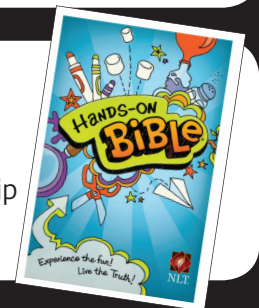

PARENT FORUM: DECODING THE TEENAGE BRAIN

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, September 26 at 6:30pm for an opportunity to learn from Josh Shipp, best-selling author and global youth empowerment expert. This seminar is targeted to parents of kids in grade 3-12, but all are welcome to the event, which will be held in the Tipp City Campus Worship Center. Admission is free.

GRADE 1 BIBLE PRESENTATION

This weekend during all worship celebrations, all children in grade 1 are invited to sit with their parents in worship to receive their very own Bible.

Longtime Ginghamburg member Harold Miller passed away September 10. Wife Robin and daughter Sarah Byram are thankful for the prayers and support received.
